

A stroll by the water in power-driven boats

Town of waters and greenery, criss-crossed by the Marne and its tributaries Mau and Nau, the canal, decked with lush gardens.

Discover Châlons and its rivers:

A stroll by the water in power-driven boats is organised by the Tourist Office from May until September on the Mau and the Nau rivers. The guided tour lasts approximately 45 minutes, and will enable you to admire many sites and monuments and to discover several bridges. The oldest goes back to 1580 (Pont des Mariniers).
